The statement that the new organization has secured ample backing for the new club to be placed in this city, and that the prin-cipal stockholders in it will be Tom Johnson and Al. Word was taken to the league men last night that the Johnsons had received assurance that if they put their money into any association club they could get the services of John McGraw, for manager, who would promptly sign Rusie, Seymour, Doheny, Davis, Gleason, Warner, Doyle, and Carrick, all New York favorites. Al. Johnson has a grudge against the league, which he has been longing to settle since the brotherhood year. So after failing to find any other solution, I resolved to getemployment in a hotel. When I told the lawyer what I intended doing, and how I meant to set aside every cent that could be spared from my wages, in order to develop the claims, he said he admired my determination but wondered whether I should stick to it. But it has finally come out all right and I guess now I shall be National Mortgage Loan Co.
